A1 Hrvatska and Ericsson Nikola Tesla continue to cooperate in the radio network segment

Zagreb, May 27, 2026

- ENT will remain the supplier of the radio part of A1 Hrvatska's mobile network for the next five years
- Continuation of strategic cooperation in the 5G segment

A1 Hrvatska and Ericsson Nikola Tesla are strengthening their long-standing partnership by signing a new multi-year agreement for the modernization and expansion of A1 Hrvatska's radio access network. This agreement reaffirms the continuity of cooperation between the two companies in developing advanced mobile infrastructure, ensuring the stable and technologically progressive development of the network and further enhancement of the user experience.

Under the new agreement, Ericsson Nikola Tesla will remain the exclusive supplier of the radio part of A1 Hrvatska's mobile network and the provider of maintenance services for the next five years.

"Today, users perceive top-quality connectivity as a standard and our task is to continuously invest in order to meet their growing needs and digital service usage habits. With this agreement, we continue to strengthen the foundations for further network development and to deliver an even better digital experience, supported by the stability and quality our users recognize and rely on every day," said Dejan Turk, CEO of A1 Hrvatska.

"We are very pleased to continue our long-standing and successful cooperation with A1 Hrvatska in the development of the radio network. Our partnership is built on trust, investment in the latest technologies and a shared commitment to developing advanced services for users through continuous improvement of network infrastructure. By modernizing and further developing the 5G network, we are contributing to the creation of a reliable and secure digital infrastructure that forms the basis for implementing new services and innovations that drive the digital transformation of the economy and society,” stated Siniša Krajnović, President of the Management Board of Ericsson Nikola Tesla.

Throughout their long-term cooperation, A1 Hrvatska and Ericsson Nikola Tesla have achieved a number of significant milestones, including continuous modernization of the radio network, the introduction of new generations of mobile technologies and ongoing improvements in capacity, coverage and reliability.
