Also, the Company has no investments in companies or joint ventures in the mentioned countries, nor does it have loans or other financial obligations towards companies from the mentioned areas.

The current situation in Eastern Europe affects and will affect the increase in the price of wheat, which is the basic raw material for production, but the Company will react to the increase in the price of wheat by increasing the prices of its products, thereby minimizing this risk. The company buys raw materials on the domestic market, so there is no risk of wheat shortage.

Other increases in the prices of inputs on the domestic market, such as energy products, transport services etc., will also spill over to the increase in the prices of the final product and therefore will not significantly affect the company's business.
