- Inside information
- CCA clears concentration in Phase 1

Following the March 1st, 2022. CCA approval of all steps considered necessary for the implementation of the Single resolution board in connection with the resolution of SBERBANK (hereinafter: the Company) and its acquisition by HPB p.l.c. (hereinafter: the Bank), on March 16th, 2022. CCA approved the intention of concentration implementation due to fact that concentration in question is not likely to produce any anti-competitive effects.

Acting in line with Article 2 paragraph 2 of the Croatian Competition act the Notification of the CCA has been posted on their website and is available for the investment public on the following link <https://www.aztn.hr/ea/wp-content/uploads/2022/03/UPI-034-032022-02002.pdf>

The Company will continue its business activities within the HPB Group and will continue with realization of its strategic goals aimed to strengthen the largest banking group in domestic ownership as well as contributing to the general prosperity and economic growth of Republic of Croatia.
