Bulk cargo handling amounted to 1,269,274 tons, which is a decrease of 123,408 tons or 9% compared to 1,392,682 tons in the same period in 2023. The decline in bulk cargo traffic is a consequence of the current decrease in grain exports due to several factors. The decline in grain export traffic was influenced by adverse climate change, grain price movements on agricultural exchanges and changes in logistics routes. There was also a decrease in scrap metal handling due to a decrease in the price of this cargo category on the destination market (Turkey), as well as due to limited storage space and reduced operational area for handling, due to the implementation of works on the port infrastructure of the Rijeka Terminal. General cargo handling in the entire year 2024 amounted to 660,348 tons, which is a decrease of 98,938 tons or 13% compared to 759,286 tons in the same period in 2023. The decline in general cargo traffic is largely due to the decline in metal product traffic. The decline in metal product transshipment traffic is caused by a decrease in production (primarily steel products) on the European market, and thus their export to world markets. In addition, exports to the Middle East countries have decreased, due to the war conflicts and the entire geopolitical situation in that area.

Within container traffic, 160,942 tons were transhipped in 2024 as a whole, while 271,454 tons were transhipped in 2023.

The impact of the Russian invasion of Ukraine on the Company's operations

The war in Ukraine and the sanctions imposed on Russia have an impact on the world economy, and therefore on the European and Croatian economy, and indirectly on the Company's operations. The largest EU economies have minimal GDP growth rates, so lower Croatian GDP growth rates are expected. Due to Russia's invasion of Ukraine and the interruption of the operation of their ports, there were significant disruptions of traffic routes through the ports of the Black Sea, as well as finding alternative traffic routes. The secondary effect of the conflict is visible in market disruptions in the supply of energy, disruptions in the food products market, and the growth of the inflation rate, which has an impact on the Company's operations, partly in the increase in operating costs. The company intends to continuously monitor costs, and with quick business decisions to influence the achievement of cost efficiency, which will result in more profitable operations.

The impact of the Red Sea crisis on the Company's operations

The Port of Rijeka, like all other ports in the world, is exposed to the action of a number of factors that can lead to a change in the direction of movement of ships, i.e. to a change in the flow of goods, which indicates the sensitivity of port systems and the great demands for the reorganization of entire logistics chains in order to enable smooth flow of goods.

Due to the crisis in the Red Sea, shipping companies are rerouting their ships via the Cape of Good Hope, which increases the ship's travel time and also increases freight rates.

It is difficult to predict to what extent the crisis will affect business, it will certainly depend on the duration of the navigation restrictions and the willingness of all shippers to maintain the existing lines at the ports of call.
