Tokić d.d. signs cooperation agreement with SmartSafe Europe – TEC becomes SmartSafe's European training centre
(Other information not constituting regulated information)

Tokić d.d., Zagreb, Ulica 144. brigade Hrvatske vojske 1A, PIN (OIB): 74867487620, hereby informs the investment public that on 29 October 2026 it signed a cooperation agreement with SmartSafe Europe, the authorised European distributor of the Chinese manufacturer Shenzhen SmartSafe Tech Co., Ltd.

SmartSafe is a global manufacturer of professional equipment, tools and software for service workshops. Its product range covers vehicle diagnostics, ADAS calibration and service equipment for electric and hybrid vehicles.

Under the agreement, the Tokić Education Centre (TEC) in Zagreb becomes the main European training centre for the entire SmartSafe product ecosystem. TEC will deliver certified training programmes in Croatian, English and German. The programmes are intended for SmartSafe partners, distributors, field technicians and service workshops from across Europe, and cover electric and hybrid vehicles, high-voltage systems, ADAS and wheel alignment, diagnostics, sensor systems and automatic transmissions. The first training sessions began immediately after the signing, with a two-day seminar for around thirty distributors from Central and Eastern Europe.

Through this cooperation, the Company is expanding TEC's activities from the Croatian and Slovenian markets to the European level and is taking on a role within the network of suppliers and manufacturers of service equipment. The partnership is part of the Group's strategy, which combines technology investments, new partnerships and the development of expertise. Its aim is to support service workshops in working with new generations of vehicles, regardless of powertrain technology or manufacturer.

"Investments in technology and education are one of the pillars of our growth, and this cooperation confirms that they are delivering results. The fact that SmartSafe has chosen our training centre as the foundation for developing its network and business across Europe shows that our expertise is recognised beyond Croatia's borders. High-quality aftermarket support, including the training of service technicians, is a prerequisite for the success of new products on the market, and this is precisely where Tokić Group is creating a clear advantage," said Ivan Šantorić, President of the Management Board of Tokić Group.
