Digitalization of Croatian cultural heritage

On August 17, Ericsson Nikola Tesla and the Croatian Ministry of Culture and Media signed a contract related to the services of development and maintenance of the information and communications system for the project e-Culture "Digitalization of cultural heritage". The contract is worth approximately MHRK 12 (VAT excluded).

The project is financed by the EU funds, and its main goal is to establish an information and communications solution that will enable safe storing of cultural heritage in a digital form, and an online access for the authorized persons, as well as the citizens.

It is expected that the implementation of this solution will additionally improve the digital connection between the public sector and the citizens and enable new ways of using information and communications infrastructure.

Ericsson enables communications service providers to capture the full value of connectivity. The company's portfolio spans Networks, Digital Services, Managed Services, and Emerging Business and is designed to help our customers go digital, increase efficiency and find new revenue streams. Ericsson's investments in innovation have delivered the benefits of telephony and mobile broadband to billions of people around the world. The Ericsson stock is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm and on NASDAQ New York.

Ericsson Nikola Tesla is an associated company of the Ericsson Group which leads and supports modern communications. The company's activities include marketing and sales, research and development, design of the total communications solution, services in the multi-service and mobile networks area including the mobile Internet and complex system integration in all business areas. The company provides innovative ICT solutions that constantly improve people's life and create new value. Shares of Ericsson Nikola Tesla are traded in the Regular Market of the Zagreb Stock Exchange under the stock exchange symbol ERNT-R-A.
