
ERICSSON NIKOLA TESLA AND BH TELECOM COLLABORATE ON OPERATION SUPPORT SYSTEMS

Nedžad Rešidbegović, MSc, BH Telecom Managing Director, and Gordana Kovačević, MSc, Ericsson Nikola Tesla President, signed a contract on Operation Support Systems (OSS) aimed for telecom operators, amounting to MHRK 15. This solution will enable BH Telecom greater efficiency and competitiveness, and simultaneously a simpler and faster implementation of cutting edge services.

After signing the contract, Nedžad Rešidbegović stated: "This is a key contract for BH Telecom Information Technology Direction. We believe that, in collaboration with our partner Ericsson Nikola Tesla, we will realize all the contract stipulations, well and in time, which will enable further business systems integration."

On this occasion, Gordana Kovačević highlighted: "Ericsson has recognized the strategic importance of this segment, which resulted in its leading position in OSS. Being the leading manufacturer of this kind of solutions worldwide, its partners are provided the top technology, knowledge and expertise. And it was just in this segment that Ericsson Nikola Tesla became the regional center for the solution development and implementation. I am happy that BH Telecom, our long-term treasured partner, has recognized both the value and quality of this solution by Ericsson, and the company Ericsson Nikola Tesla itself. Therefore, I am convinced that our collaboration will continue in future to the satisfaction of both of our companies, and end users, as well."
