

Zagreb – 20 January 2012

T-Hrvatski Telekom

Croatian Parliament adopted the reinstatement of mobile services fee until June 2013

T-Hrvatski Telekom, (Reuters: THTC.L, HT.ZA; Bloomberg: THTC LI, HTRA CZ, 'the Group'), Croatia's leading telecommunications provider, announces an update on last week's Government proposal regarding the 6% fee on mobile networks services, following legislation passed today by the Croatian Parliament.

Parliament adopted the proposal to reinstate the 6% fee on revenues generated by mobile services, including SMS, MMS and voice, to be payable by the operator.

The Fee for the Provision of Services in Mobile Electronic Communications Networks Act was adopted today and comes into force after publication in the Official Gazette. It will be valid until 30 June 2013, when Croatia is expected to accede to the European Union.

Contact details

T-Hrvatski Telekom

Erika Kašpar, Corporate Communications and Investor Relations	00 385 1 491 2000
Elvis Knežević, Investor Relations	00 385 1 491 1114
Anita Marić Šimek, Investor Relations	00 385 1 491 1884
E-mail	ir@t.ht.hr
Web site	www.t.ht.hr/eng/investors

College Hill

Kay Larsen / Adrian Duffield	+44 (0)20 7457 2020
------------------------------	---------------------

About T-Hrvatski Telekom

T-Hrvatski Telekom (T-HT) is the leading provider of telecommunication services in Croatia, serving more than 1.3 million fixed lines, nearly 2.5 million mobile subscribers and 648,000 broadband connections through its Residential and Business divisions.

Since its initial public offering in October 2007, T-HT shares have traded on the Zagreb Stock Exchange, with global depositary receipts trading on the London Stock Exchange. Deutsche Telekom AG owns 51% of T-HT's shares, with the War Veterans' Fund owning 7% and the Pensioners' Fund holds 3.5%. The remaining free float is in the hands of private and institutional investors.