T-Hrvatski Telekom

Changes in employees' representative in the Supervisory Board

T-Hrvatski Telekom (Reuters: THTC.L, HT.ZA; Bloomberg: THTC LI, HTRA CZ), Croatia's leading telecommunications provider, announces that Josip Pupić has resigned as Workers' Representative on the Supervisory Board of HT and will step down from his role on 31 December 2010.

His post will be taken by Juko Cikojević, who was appointed to the Supervisory Board following a meeting of the Workers' Council held on 23 September 2010, pursuant to Article 15 of the Articles of Association of Hrvatski Telekom d.d.

Mr. Pupić was first appointed to the Supervisory Board in 2004, being reappointed in 2008. Formerly president of the HST - Croatian Union of Telecommunications, the largest union at T-HT, he represented the interests of all the Company's employees in all matters of concern to the Supervisory Board.

His successor, Mr. Juko Cikojević, is a prominent member of the Workers' Council and was appointed president of the HST - Croatian Union of Telecommunications in 2008.
