Subject: Institut IGH's Kosovo Motorway Project selected as best project in the "roads and highways" category
IGH wins the prestigious 2013 Global Best Projects Award bestowed by Engineering News-Record

Further to provisions contained in the Capital Market Act (NN 88/08, 146/08, 74/09) and according to Zagreb Stock Exchange Rules, we wish to advise you as follows:

The Institut IGH, i.e. the Kosovo Motorway Project, is the winner of the prestigious 2013 Global Best Projects Award bestowed by the US Engineering News-Record.

The Kosovo Motorway Project has been singled out by a qualified jury as the best international project in the category of Roads and Highways, where a particular attention is paid to the excellence in construction and design.

The winners of the 2013 global Best Projects Awards were selected by an independent jury of industry leaders with an extensive international experience.

Criteria for the award included safety, innovation, contribution to global community, aesthetic appeal and craftsmanship, with a special emphasis on global diversity of project teams.

The Global Best Projects Award is an international professional award aimed at promoting the best international construction projects and companies that have proven their merit through design work and quality and innovation in construction. The award is bestowed in 20 categories, ranging from airports to education. More information about the award can be found at <http://enr.construction.com/BestProjects/global/2013/>.
