Subject: USD 300 million revolving credit facility extended

INA, d.d. ("INA") signed a 1 year extension of the USD 300 million revolving credit facility. USD 300 million revolving credit facility agreement was signed with seven bank groups in December 2018. The facility was arranged as a club deal with a three year tenor and two one-year extension options. INA agreed the extension of the maturity for one additional year with all participating lenders under the unchanged highly competitive conditions. The extension of this facility further ensures stable financial support for INA operations and future investment activities.
