REGISTERED CAPITAL

Article 6

The registered capital of the company is HRK 169,186,800.00 (in words: one hundred sixty-nine million one hundred and eighty-six thousand eight hundred kuna).

PERMITTED REGISTERED CAPITAL

Article 6.a

The Company Management Board is authorised, within five years from the registration of the amendments to the Statute with the Companies Register of the Commercial Court in Dubrovnik, in a single payment or in several instalments, to increase the registered capital of the Company by the nominal amount of HRK 44,000,000.00 (in words: forty-four million kuna) (permitted registered capital). Such an increase of the registered capital requires the consent of the Supervisory Board.

The registered capital may be increased by issuing new stock against cash deposits or assets or rights. The Company Management Board may, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, exclude the pre-emptive right of the shareholders to subscribe new shares. The Supervisory Board is authorised to harmonise the provisions of the Articles of Association with the changes resulting from such an increase in the registered capital and issuing of new shares.

COMPANY SHARES

Number of shares

Article 7

The registered capital is divided into 422,967 (in words: four hundred twenty-two thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven) ordinary shares with a nominal value of HRK 400.00 each.

Types of shares

Article 8

All the shares of the Company are name shares and are marked LKPC-R-A.

In case of new issues of shares, every further issue shall be marked with the next letter of the alphabet.

The Company may issue other types and kinds of shares as well, in accordance with law and these Articles of Association.

Article 9

A share is indivisible.

If more than one person acquires one share, they exercise the rights pertaining to such a share - as persons with indivisible entitlement - through a joint attorney.

The Power of Attorney shall be issued in writing.

Article 10

The share certificate must have all the components prescribed by law.

Share certificates and confirmations concerning shares shall be signed or stamped with facsimile signatures of the Chairman of the Board and the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

In subsequent share issues, the share certificates shall be issued within the period determined in the decision concerning a particular issue.

Article 11

The shares of the Company shall be contained in the Company's documents concerning the shares of the Company.

Share certificates shall be issued individually or collectively.

Individual share certificate shall contain one share, whereas a collective share certificate shall contain multiple shares of the Company.

The collective document may, at the expense of the shareholder, be replaced by an individual document or such a collective document that is made out for a smaller number of shares than initially issued.

Payment of shares

Article 12

Shares from new issues shall be payable in HRK to the account of the Company kept at the expense of the Company with an authorised financial institution in the Republic of Croatia.

The shares may also, through a decision of the General Assembly, be paid by bringing in assets or rights.

The shares must by all means be paid so that the Company may freely dispose with the sums paid for the shares of the Company, as well as with brought in assets and rights.

Article 13

The decision on issuing shares as securities shall be taken by the General Assembly.

The appearance and layout of the share shall be determined by the Company Management Board with the approval of the Supervisory Board.

The founding shares shall be issued in a non-materialised form under the terms prescribed by a specific law.

The regulation of the issue of shares in non-materialised form shall be dealt with in a by-law to be issued by the Supervisory Board.

Article 14

Until the issuance of share certificates, as well as in shares issued in immaterial form, a shareholder shall, at his own request, be issued a share certificate.

The share certificate shall be issued for the total number of shares of a particular shareholder, and it can exceptionally be issued for a particular share.

The share certificate confirms that the shareholder is registered in the Book of Shares and contains information about the share issuer, the shareholder, the nominal value of the share, its number, date of issue.

The share certificate is not a security but a legitimating paper and can only be used for the purposes determined in these Articles of Association.

Acquiring own shares

Article 15

Share transfer and encumbrance

The Company may acquire its own shares on the basis of the General Assembly authorisation to acquire them that shall remain valid for a maximum of 5 years and set out the terms under which the shares can be acquired, particularly the maximum number of shares to be acquired, the period for which the acquisition authorisation has been issued and, if the shares are being acquired in the way of payment, the highest and the lowest value of what the Company is paying. The Company may not acquire its own shares to trade in them. In every acquisition of shares the Company Management Board shall verify that the legal requirements have been met.

In acquiring the shares as referred to in paragraph 1 above and in disposing with them the provision of Article 211 of the Companies Act shall be applicable. Such a procedure shall be assumed if the shares are being acquired i.e. if they are being disposed with on an organised securities market. Any other disposal with the shares shall require a decision of the General Assembly. In the acquisition of the shares the provisions of Article 398 paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Companies Act shall be applicable accordingly. The General Assembly may authorise the Company Management Board to withdraw its own shares without needing to issue a specific decision.

The Company may acquire its own shares even without the authorisation from the General Assembly:

- If it is necessary to decline an imminent damage to the Company
- If the shares are to be offered for the acquisition by the employees of the Company or any of the affiliated companies, provided that they are transferred to such persons within a year from the date of the acquisition,
- If the shares are acquired to indemnify, pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, the shareholders of the Company or the minority shareholders of dependent companies,
- If the acquisition is effected without payment or if with the acquisition a financial institution is purchasing the shares for a commission,
- If shares are acquired from a shareholder for not paying up,
- On the basis of universal legal succession,
- On the basis of the decision of the General Assembly on withdrawing shares pursuant to the regulations concerning the decrease in the registered capital of the Company,
- In an auction conducted by a court for the Company to satisfy a claim towards a shareholder.

The shares acquired in a manner defined in paragraph 1 above and for the purposes mentioned under indents 1 to 3, 5 and 8 of this Article, combined with the shares that the Company already has, shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the registered capital of the Company. Such acquisition is only permitted when the Company has created the prescribed reserves for such shares so that the net assets of the Company presented in the financial statements of the Company for the latest business year does not fall on account of the acquisition of the shares below the level of the registered capital and statutory reserves that may not be used for disbursements to the shareholders. To this end the amount of the registered capital shall be calculated down for the sum for which this capital has not been paid up yet, if this sum has not been presented as assets in the balance sheet.

In the cases referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and paragraph 3 indents 1, 2, 4 and 8, the acquisition of the shares was only permitted when the shares were fully paid up.

In the cases referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and paragraph 3 indent 1, the Company Management Board shall report to the next General Assembly of the Company about the reasons and purpose of the acquisition of shares, their number and share in the registered capital, and the equivalent value of what the Company paid for such shares.

The acquisition of shares contrary to the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 3 of this Article shall not be valid, and the share transfer transaction in terms of the Law of Obligations shall be null and void.

Article 16

A shareholder may transfer a share from the moment of the registration of the Company with the Companies Register.

Name shares shall be transferred by endorsement.

Non-paid-up founder shares purchased on instalment plan shall be transferred to the acquirer on the basis of a contract in writing bearing the certified signature of the transferor.

The contract referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall include the name and registered office of the Company whose non-paid-up shares are being transferred, the number of the registration certificate for the Company, the company registration number, the nominal value of the shares transferred with the indication of the total nominal value of the shares, the number of the contract concluded with the State Property Management Agency (formerly the Croatian Privatization Fund) on the basis of which the first holder of the shares had originally acquired non-paid-up shares that are the subject of the transfer. The acquirer shall send one copy of the contract to the State Property Management Agency.

Article 17

The Company may acquire, alienate, withdraw and take its own shares as collateral in accordance with law.

A decision to the above-mentioned effect shall be issued by the Supervisory Board.

6) Book of Shares

Article 18

The Book of Shares shall be kept by the Central Clearing Depository Company PLC Zagreb (CCDC PLC).

Any entries shall be registered in the Book of Shares at the request of the interested party that shall file the request with the Company referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in writing together with the proof of the legal basis for the intended registration.

REPRESENTATION AND PROXY

Article 19

The Company shall be represented by the president of the Management Board.

The Company Management Board shall represent the Company singly and severally.

The Company Management Board may within its responsibility authorise others for representation.

Article 20

With the prior consent of the Supervisory Board the Company Management Board may grant proxy to one or more persons.

Without a special authorisation issued by the Company Management Board with the prior consent of the Supervisory Board, a proxy may not conduct the affairs referred to in Article 56 paragraph 2 of these Articles of Association and cannot undertake the legal activities to initiate bankruptcy proceedings or other proceedings for the cessation of the Company.

BODIES OF THE COMPANY

Article 21

The bodies of the Company are: the General Assembly, the Supervisory Board, and Company Management Board.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Article 22

The General Assembly of the Company is a body through which the shareholders exercise their management rights.

A shareholder is entitled to attend the General Assembly and can exercise this right personally, through a deputy or an attorney.

Shareholders may be represented by natural or legal persons on the basis of a valid authorisation.

A person to represent a shareholder who is a legal entity in terms of these Articles of Association shall be authorised on the basis of law or a by-law of the respective legal person.

If a shareholder is represented by an authorised legal entity, the person authorised for representation shall be the person whose authorisation is registered with the Companies Register or a person authorised by such a person.

The authorisation in writing shall include: the person authorised, the shareholder giving the authorisation, the number of shares available, the authorisation for representation in terms of attendance and deciding on behalf of the shareholder at the General Assembly, the issue date and period of validity. The authorisation must be submitted to the Company Management Board.

The authorisation issued by a shareholder who is a natural person shall be in writing. The authorisation issued by a person authorised to represent a shareholder who is a legal entity needs to be signed by the person in charge with this legal entity, with a seal affixed.

Solely in the instances prescribed by law may a shareholder's right to vote at the General Assembly be precluded.

The Company Management Board and the Supervisory Board shall attend the General Assembly even when they are not shareholders.

I Responsibilities of the General Assembly

Article 23

The General Assembly shall decide on the following:

- o Appointing and relieving members of the Supervisory Board,
- o Annual financial statements and distribution of profits,
- o Issuing clearance to members of the Company Management Board and the Supervisory Board,
- o Appointing the Company auditors,
- o Amending the Articles of Association,
- o Increasing and decreasing the registered capital of the Company,
- o Cessation of the Company,
- o Issuing the Rules of Procedure for the General Assembly,
- o Releasing a new issue of shares,
- o Status changes in the Company,
- o Relieving a member of the Supervisory Board prior to the expiry of his term,
- o Other matters explicitly entrusted with it by law or these Articles of Association.

The decisions concerning:

- Amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company,
- Increase and decrease in the registered capital of the Company,

Release of a new issue of shares,
Status changes in the Company,
Relieving a member of the Supervisory Board prior to the expiry of his term,
Other matters for which law requires a qualified majority, shall be deemed adopted if supported by the shareholders who make up at least 75% (in words: seventy-five percent) of all the votes represented at the General Assembly.

The General Assembly can decide on managing the affairs of the Company solely at the request of the Company Management Board.

In addition to what is mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article, the General Assembly shall also decide on other matters put in its charge by law.

II Convening a General Assembly

Article 24

The General Assembly of the Company shall meet at least once a year, and it must meet in the first eight months of the business year, and when the interests of the Company require it.

The General Assembly shall be convened by the Company Management Board in the manner prescribed by law.

The Supervisory Board shall also be authorised to convene the General Assembly, and it shall do so whenever the benefit of the Company requires it.

The request to convene the General Assembly may be sent to the Company Management Board in writing by the shareholders who jointly own 5% of the registered capital of the Company and who state the purpose and reasons for their request. If these requirements have been met, the Company Management Board must convene the General Assembly.

The General Assembly shall take place in Ploče at the venue indicated in the invitation by the convener.

An extraordinary General Assembly shall take place whenever this is required in the interest of the Company.

Article 25

The right to attend an extraordinary General Assembly of the Company belongs to all the shareholders who are registered in the Book of Shares as of the date of publication of the General Assembly and who register for attendance to the Company no later than six calendar days prior to the date of the General Assembly, not counting the date of attendance registration and the date of the General Assembly. Attendance registrations shall be submitted or sent to the Company Management Board per registered letter. The attendance registration shall include the first and last names of the shareholder, the number of shares, and the declaration that he intends to attend the extraordinary General Assembly.

Shareholders registered for attendance shall receive a confirmation that they are to submit to the Commission for recording the attendance no later than one hour prior to the start of the General Assembly. Shareholders can be represented by their attorneys.

Article 26

The conveners shall convene the General Assembly no later than thirty days in advance.

The decision on convening the General Assembly shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Croatia, on the info board of the Company, web page of the Company, Zagreb Stock Exchange, HANFA and Hina .

The decision on convening the General Assembly shall include:

- Name and registered office of the Company,
- Venue and time of the General Assembly,
- Requirements to meet in order to attend the General Assembly and exercise the right to vote,
- Agenda and draft decisions to be passed,
- Signature of the authorised convener.

Article 27

The General Assembly of the Company may be attended by the shareholders who meet the following requirements:

- a) That they are registered in the Book of Shares, if they are holders of name shares;
- b) That they have deposited share certificates - if they are holders of bearer shares, and no later than six days prior to the General Assembly - with the Company, a Notary Public or a bank or other institution in accordance with law. Share certificates must remain deposited until the end of the day on which the General Assembly has been convened;
- That the shareholders under a) above have notified the Company in writing no later than six days prior to the General Assembly of their intention to attend it, and that the shareholders under b) above have within the same time limit submitted to the Company proofs that they have deposited their share certificates as prescribed. Share certificate deposit is proved with a confirmation of the Company, Notary Public or bank or another institution in accordance with law.

Article 28

Shareholders' proposals concerning the agenda of the General Assembly shall be communicated in accordance with Article 282 of the Companies Act.

III Quorum

Article 29

The General Assembly can validly decide if attended by the shareholders or their attorney who individually or jointly hold stock in the nominal value that exceeds 50% (in words: fifty percent) of the registered capital of the Company as of the time of the General Assembly, unless provided otherwise by law or these Articles of Association in specific cases.

In convening the General Assembly, a date shall be set for the subsequent General Assembly in case the original one ends up without a quorum pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article. The time limit for the subsequent General Assembly to take place shall not be shorter than 15 (in words: fifteen) days, nor longer than 30 (in words: thirty) days from the date of the original General Assembly.

The subsequent General Assembly can pass valid decisions if it is attended by shareholders or their attorneys who individually or jointly hold stock whose nominal value exceeds 30% (in words: thirty percent) of the registered capital of the Company as of the date of the subsequent General Assembly.

Article 30

Just before the start of the General Assembly, an employee authorised by the Company Management Board shall submit to the Chairman of the General Assembly a list of the attending shareholders with the number of their respective votes. On the basis of this list, the Chairman shall determine how many votes the attending shareholders hold and whether they are eligible to participate in the work of the General Assembly, and shall report this to the General Assembly, and it will be recorded in the minutes.

IV Decision making

Article 31

The General Assembly shall pass decisions with a simple majority of the votes cast.

Decisions shall be taken by a qualified majority of votes when this is explicitly envisaged by law and these Articles of Association.

V Voting right

Article 32

The voting right shall be exercised by shareholders in proportion to the nominal value of the shares entitling them to vote, respectively, i.e. every share with the nominal value of HRK 400.00 shall entitle its holder to one vote.

At the General Assembly the voting shall be open.

VI Chairman of the General Assembly

Article 33

The General Meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman elected by the General Assembly at the proposal of shareholders who jointly hold stock exceeding 5% of the registered capital of the Company. The Chairman shall be elected for a period of 4 years by a simple majority of votes of the attending shareholders, and he may be re-elected when his term expires. The Chairman of the General Assembly may be relieved of duty before the expiry of his term, by a simple majority vote of the attending shareholders.

In case the Chairman is prevented, the General Assembly shall be chaired by a person elected to chair just this one General Assembly, in the same manner in which the Chairman of the General Assembly has been elected.

The level of the remuneration for the Chairman shall be determined by a decision of the General Assembly.

Article 34

The Chairman of the General Assembly shall in particular be in charge of the following:

- Opening the General Assembly,
- Establishing whether the General Assembly has been duly convened,
- Chairing and conducting the sessions of the General Assembly,

- Determining the order for discussion on particular items on the agenda,
- Examining and determining whether the conditions for the attendance and voting of shareholders have been met,
- Signing the list of attendants,
- Determining the order of voting on individual proposals,
- Determining the voting method for individual decisions,
- Determining the quorum,
- Establishing the voting results,
- Taking care of the order in the session,
- Signing the Articles of Association of the Company and its amendments, decisions, documents passed or adopted by the General Assembly,
- On behalf of the Company, concluding agreements with the members of the Supervisory Board of the Company concerning their responsibilities, in accordance with these Articles of Association,
- On behalf of the General Assembly, communicating with other bodies of the Company and with Third Parties, when this is envisaged by law and these Articles of Association,
- Closing the session,
- Carrying out other duties entrusted to him by law or these Articles of Association.

Article 35

The Company Management Board shall determine how shareholders are to be supplied the materials related to the subject to be decided at the General Assembly that are not required to be published in the Company bulletin. Such materials can also be served by publishing an invitation to take a look in the materials at a specific time and place.

Article 36

Any decision of the General Assembly shall be mentioned in the minutes prepared by a Notary Public in accordance with law.

Following the General Assembly, the Company Management Board shall promptly send a notarized copy of the minutes with attachments to the court of registration.

Article 37

The decisions and minutes of the General Assembly shall be entered in the Register of decisions and Minutes of the General Assembly kept by the Company Management Board. Decisions shall be numbered if prepared separately, and entered in the Register in the order of their issuance. Minutes are to be entered chronologically.

The General Assembly shall adopt its own Rules of Procedure.

Article 38

At the General Assembly the Company Management Board shall provide every shareholder, at his own request, information about the operation of the Company, if this is necessary for the judgement of the matter that is on the agenda. The obligation to provide information shall apply to both legal and commercial relations of the Company with affiliated companies.

The Company Management Board may withhold information:

- a) If it would, in a reasonable economic judgement, could do damage to the Company or an affiliated company,
- b) About tax liability or the level of particular taxes,

c) About the difference between the book value of individual assets of the Company and their higher value, unless the General Assembly has adopted the annual financial statements,

d) About the methods for preparing the financial statements of the Company and the estimate of the value of its assets, revenues and expenditures, if mentioning such methods in the attachments to the aforementioned statements suffices to gaining a real picture of the property and financial status and the profit of the Company, if the Company Management Board would, by providing the information, commit an offence.

VII Special General Assembly and separate vote

Article 39

If the Company subsequently issues shares of different types and with different entitlements, the decisions passed for a specific type of shares only (special decisions) shall be adopted either at special meetings of the shareholders who own special shares, or by a separate vote at the General Assembly.

A special meeting shall be convened by the shareholders entitled to vote at such a meeting, whose shares make up min. 10% of the shares entitling to vote at the special meeting.

VIII Expenses of the General Assembly

Article 40

Every shareholder shall cover the expenses of his own attendance to the General Assembly, whereas the expenses of the preparation and taking place of the General Assembly shall be covered by the Company.

When the General Assembly is convened by the shareholders mentioned in Art. 25 paragraph 4 of these Articles of Association, and if the General Assembly so convened does actually take place, the expenses for its preparation and conduct shall be covered by the Company, and if the General Assembly does not take place because of the lack of quorum or non-acceptance of the agenda, the expenses of the General Assembly and the attending shareholders shall be covered by the shareholders who convened the General Assembly.

IX Special audit

Article 41

With a view to examining the proceeding in managing the Company's affairs and the measures undertaken to increase or decrease the registered capital of the Company, the General Assembly can, by a simple majority vote, appoint special auditors of the Company in accordance with law.

THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

I Number of members and membership requirements

Article 42

The Supervisory Board of the Company shall have 5 members, and one member shall be the representative of labour appointed and relieved by the Works Council.

Members of the Supervisory Board shall include natural persons with full legal capacity.

The following are not eligible to become members of the Supervisory Board:

- Member of the Company Management Board,
- Member of the Supervisory Board in ten companies,
