

ZAGREBAČKA BURZA d.d.

on 7th of August 2020, due to the change in the price of OPTE shares, which caused the launch of the Volatility interruption, OT-Optima Telekom d.d. had received Zagreb Stock Exchange's inquiry as to whether we, as the issuer, are aware of any new circumstances or facts that affect or could affect the price of a financial instrument listed on a regulated market, which do not arise from information previously submitted to the Zagreb Stock Exchange.

OT Optima telekom informs, that on 7th of August 2020 Croatian Competition Agency (CCA). issued the followed notification on its web site:

„CCA hereby informs that the Trustee Deloitte d.o.o. informed CCA that HT will start fulfilling its obligation to engage an investment bank for the further sale process or to take actions to prevent possible delays in fulfilling the obligations prescribed by the CCA decision on the conditionally permitted concentration of HT and Optima.

In addition, the CCA emphasizes that it should not and must not publish information on received bids. All issues related to the price and trading of shares of joint stock companies are not within the competence of CCA.“

OT-Optima Telekom d.d. points out that, besides above-mentioned CCA's announcement on its web site, as an issuer, it is not aware of any new circumstances or facts, which do not arise from the information previously submitted to the Zagreb Stock Exchange, that affect or could affect the share price.
