Annex to Gas Contract Signed

Petrokemija, Plc. and Prirodni Plin Ltd., a member of INA Group, have reached an agreement and signed an annex to contract on natural gas supply. The annex stipulates the revised terms of delivery in 2013 and volumes to be supplied by to the end of 2014 (for the most part these are the volumes from the contractual provisions that define a flexible range of deliveries in 2012 and 2013).

The current Contract, signed in December 2011, is based on the then gas market conditions in Croatia, as well as the so-called escalation formula for gas pricing.

The agreed revision of the Contract, i.e. the signed Contract amendments provides gas supply under the terms that are much closer to the conditions in the European market, which will allow better business performance for Petrokemija.

The implementation of the revised terms commences as of January 1, 2013.
