Response to a Zagreb Stock Exchange inquiry

With reference to the inquiry of the Zagreb Stock Exchange about an article in today's edition of Jutarnji List entitled "Even if there is an investor in Petrokemija, the price will be low," which states, "The Government's decision on the recapitalization of Petrokemija started the third and last attempt to save this strategic state company" as well as a draft decision published on the website of the Government that reads, "the Ministry of Economy is authorized to vote on acceptance of the revised restructuring plan that would ensure long-term stability of Petrokemija, Plc, Company Kutina, i.e. by recapitalization of the company in cash, assets and rights", the Management of Petrokemija, Plc. claims that, except for the published draft decision on the website of the Croatian Government, it has no further information about the mentioned process of recapitalization nor about the Decision of the Croatian Government.

The Company Board will provide the necessary information about any new material facts.
