The Company's main business should be cross-border services to investors and early-stage companies through creating an alternative platform for funding companies and enabling trading with such investments.

This project is part of long term strategy of ZSE to support companies in all stages of its development: from start-up to SME and finally, regulated market.

ZSE intends to be a major driver in developing long-term sustainable growth path of business for the whole South-East Europe region.

This information is publicly available on the website ZSE, in the Official Register of Regulated Information (HANFA) and is sent to HINA for publication.

Sincerely yours

Ivana Gažić
